

For service companies checking a bill against the contract

Three visits at $225 match the $675 billed.

Clearway Cleaning · Meadow Studios · invoice for August 1–31, 2026

Meadow Studios · a separate comparison

In the Meadow Studios comparison, the service log records three additional visits in August; that contract's Schedule A prices them at $225 each; the invoice bills $675. Nothing to correct.

Contract	Meadow Studios cleaning agreement, Schedule A §1
Service record	three additional visits in August 2026
Compared	quantity and rate for this line only

Source extract

Meadow Studios cleaning agreement, Schedule A §1, August service log and invoice line

Schedule A §1: additional cleaning visits cost $225 each. August log: three additional visits, August 5, 12 and 19. Invoice: three additional visits, $675.

Your next step

Nothing to correct. Keep the log and the invoice together as the record of the match.

What this does not tell you

One line matched. Taxes, adjustments and the other lines on that invoice were not part of this check.

About TermTie

Compares one contract and its amendments with one billing period's invoices, and shows each difference beside the clause and the math. $299 once. See pricing at termtie.com/access/.

Reference 46e8559a0e69 — quote it if you write to us about this sample.